

2010 Grassy Green Pickin' and Fiddlin' Contest

The Grassy Green Pickin' and Fiddlin' Contest has taken place at Furnace Creek Ranch for well over 25 years, and is known for its friendly competition and good old-fashioned fun.

Through this contest the Death Valley '49ers strive to preserve the historic fiddling culture and tunes, to help develop audience appreciation and understanding, and to acknowledge today's musicians who are carrying on this traditional music genre.

5. Categories will compete in the following order: mandolins, banjos, novelty, guitar.
6. Various traditional styles such as folk, blues, ragtime, gospel, country, old-time are appropriate. Rock styles and excessive strumming will be disqualified. Contemporary tunes from any genre or era may be played as long as they are picked.

This round requires one tune not a repeat of something played earlier. A tie in the finals will be settled with a playoff, one tune of choice.
